

Triggering events allowing a special enrollment period

- Loss of minimum essential coverage
- Divorce
- Legal separation
- Termination of domestic partnership or civil union*
- Change in full-time employment status
- Loss of employer-sponsored insurance
- Death of a parent or spouse
- Change in dependent status as a result of turning 26
- Permanent move to a new state

Gaining or becoming a dependent due to:

- Marriage
- Domestic partnership*
- Birth of child/children
- Adoption of child/children
- Placement for adoption of child/children
- Guardian/court-ordered dependent

Special enrollment period may apply if the individual:

- Is a member of military returning from active duty*
- Is released from incarceration*
- Gains eligible immigration status or citizenship*

*In applicable states